

• You're Gonna Sing This All Day ... 1-877-Kars4Kids

- You're familiar with the KARS4KIDS car donation charity -- and of course, their jingle which gets stuck in your head all day after just one listen.
- Well, the organization has decided to address the successful/hated jingle, and wants your opinion on a replacement. KARS4KIDS has remixed the song, and are asking listeners to vote on it on their site at www.kars4kids.org/song.
- Said KARS4KIDS spokesperson STEVEN WELDLER, "After years of getting feedback from listeners who detest our song, the response to the new version has been overwhelming and it now leads the original by 64%-36% (leaving us wondering, who are those 36% and why don't they ever send in feedback?)."
